IS FIVE HUNDRED

An Earthquake Shock in Oregon this Morning Causes Uneasiness--Houses Were Rocked at Glendale.

New York, April 23.—A Western Union bulletin from San Francisco says it has been raining since midnight, causing untold suffering among the refugees.

SMOKING EMBERS
ALL THAT REMAINS

Estimates of the Number of Persons Killed Will Never Be Accurate—Already $4,154,000 Has Been Subscribed.

San Francisco, April 23.—The announcement is made that the fire is out, only smoking embers remaining. The grand total of all moneys subscribed to date is $4,154,000.

South of Market street the loss of life was mostly brought about by the collapsing of many cheap and crowded lodging houses. Among these was the Royal, corner of Fourth and Minna streets, in which many scores of victims were buried.

The collapsing of the Portland house on Sixth street, between Mission and Market, came about in a similar manner.
Fully sixty persons were entombed amidst the crash of timbers and brick.
Many of these were saved before the fire reached the spot.

The large five-story Brunswick rooming house with its 300 rooms filled with guests on the corner of Sixth and Howard streets collapsed entirely and fire started amid the ruins scarcely five minutes later. It is estimated that over 300 persons lost their lives.

Part of the large Comopolitan house, corner of Fifth and Mission streets, collapsed at the first tremble. Many of the sleepers were buried in the ruins; others escaped in their night clothes.

At 775 Mission street the Wilton house, with its four stories and eighty rooms, fell to the ground a mass of ruins. As far as known very few of the inmates were rescued.

The Denver house on lower Third street faced the same and none may ever know how many were killed, the majority of the inmates being strangers.

Wants Supplied at Present.
The homeless people are no longer obliged to subsist upon bread and canned stuff entirely, as they had been during the previous days of their trying experiences, but are given hot coffee, canned meats and even cakes and oranges have come in plentiful supply from southern California, and the sight of California's famous product was everywhere hailed with delight.

It must not be understood by the charitable people of the country that there is a surfeit of food for the sufferers. While the supply is abundant at this time, it is well for the public to remember that the homeless thousands must be fed and cared for by an organized relief committee for an indefinite period. It is desired, therefore, that contributions be continued everywhere until the people who have been rendered helpless and destitute by the city's misfortune can care for themselves.

The water situation, while causing inconvenience, is no longer such a problem. About two-thirds of the section of the city which was not burned is being supplied with sufficient water for the pressing needs, but of course there is not yet enough to be had for fire fighting purposes. Because of this fact, the most stringent orders have been issued by the authorities that no fire shall be built within any house and no lights, not even a candle light, can be shown in the house at night. All cooking must be done on the sidewalks or in the open streets and in daylight.

Present Death List Is 500.
The total number of bodies recovered and buried up to last night is 500. No complete record can be had at this time, as many bodies have been buried without permits from the coroner and the board of health. The searches of the coroner's and the board of health departments found not more than 20 bodies yesterday. They were buried immediately. It is impossible to obtain any sort of death list, or even to make a reliable estimate of the number of casualties.

FRESH EARTHQUAKES
FELT IN OREGON Houses Rocked and Chimneys Fell at Glendale, But There Was No Loss of Life or Property.

Portland, Ore., April 23.—Between one and quarter past one this morning a distinct earthquake shock was felt throughout parts of Oregon. The shock was so severe at Glendale that houses rocked and chimneys fell. The disturbance was also felt at Grant's Pass. No loss of life or property is reported, but uneasiness is felt that the earthquakes which have extended thus far up the Pacific coast.

CHURCH SERVICES HELD.
Crowds Gathered, Irrespective of Their Creeds.

San Francisco, April 23.—On the steps of the shattered churches and on the green slopes of parks and cemeteries, the people of San Francisco assembled yesterday at the usual hours for religious services. Grateful for the opportunity to express thanks for their preservation and anxious for words of cheer and comfort to carry them through future trials, the people assembled in great numbers in the churches and ceremonies were held in the open air. There were distinctions as to sect or denomination, the gatherings including as a rule a large percentage of the families camping or residing in the vicinity.
Catholic clergymen celebrated masses in the Jewish cemetery and every creed knelt with bowed heads while the services were in progress.

On the steps of St. Mary's cathedral and on the upheaved pavement of Golden Gate avenue overlooking the blackened waste that commenced just across the street, Archbishop Montgomery celebrated mass at eight o'clock. The service was attended by thousands, covering the church steps and extending well up and down the street in either direction. The archbishop's words and his reference to the death of Fire Chief Sullivan affected the entire assembly, tears streaming down hundreds of faces upturned to the tiny altar in the open doorway of the vestibule. Five masses were celebrated at St. Mary's cathedral.
The archbishop in his sermon recommended that the people at all times be submissive to the authorities.

CREMATING BODIES.
Two Hundred Were Burned at San Francisco.

San Francisco, April 23.—Two hundred bodies found in the Potrero district south of Shannon street, near the Union Iron Works, were cremated at the Sixth Avenue crematorium by order of Coroner Walsh. So many dead were found in this limited area that cremation was deemed absolutely necessary to prevent disease. The names of some of the dead were learned, but in the great confusion identification was impossible owing to the mutilation of the bodies.

The body of a man was found in the middle of Silver street between Third and Fourth. A bit of burned envelope was found in the pocket of the vest bearing the name "A. Houston."

NEVER KNEW OF FIRE.
Fire Chief Sullivan Died Yesterday—
Injured by Earthquake.

San Francisco, April 23.—Chief D. J.
Sullivan of San Francisco's fire department died yesterday from the effects of injuries received on the morning of the earthquake. Chief Sullivan and his wife were sleeping in the fire house adjoining the California Hotel in Rush street. The earthquake shook down the chimney of the hotel and sent it crashing through the fire house. Chief Sullivan and his wife were carried with the debris two stories to the ground floor, where they were extricated with great difficulty. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan were taken to the South Pacific hospital, but when the flames reached the Mission they were again moved, this time to the general hospital at Presidio.

It was found that Mr. Sullivan was suffering from a fractured skull, four broken ribs and other serious injuries.
"Eddie" Grady, well known sporting referee, was with Chief Sullivan when the wounded man was removed from the fire house until Mr. Sullivan's death.
Mr. Grady stated that Chief Sullivan never knew there was a fire. After recovering consciousness, the chief took great interest in the affairs of the city, being always apprehensive that a fire would break out. He knew from the first that he was dying from his injuries, but never forgot the interests of his department.

TERROR IN VIRGINIA.
Volcanic Disturbance Heaves Dismal Swamp.

Richmond, Va., April 23.—A volcanic disturbance of considerable proportions occurred late Saturday night in the morasses of the Dismal Swamp near Norfolk. The mud in the swamp is boiling up, rotten portions of forest and undergrowth coming to the surface.
The wild denizens of the locality are fleeing from the swamp in droves, seeking safety upon the higher ground. No complete record can be had at this time,

mediately. It is impossible to obtain sult of a dust explosion in a mine of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, forty miners were killed and several others the result of a winch shot which ignited the

"Sweet Clover."
There is no city—no matter how small—in this grand country of ours, where there is no man—fair with a strong desire to shine upon the stage, and in the scores of these places, every time a theatrical company is billed, the star is sure to be showered with applauds, and in the choicest phrases, and with the one end in view, that of securing the chair of the person addressed, in their attempt to win fame and glory on the stage; and of those most often addressed, one is Miss Sadie Calhoun, to be seen here shortly in the beautiful comedy drama, "Sweet Clover."

Miss Calhoun was in a city in New York state a few weeks ago, trying to get away from matters theatrical and resting up preparatory to her regular season, or the rehearsals thereof. She had managed to hide her identity very well—at least she thought so—but one pointing the bell boy brought a card to her room. It bore the name of a young woman quite prominent in the town, and Miss Calhoun invited her to her room.

"You are an actress, are you not?"
"Well," Miss Calhoun continued, "let me tell you that every woman, or man either, who makes the stage his or her means of livelihood should have some special qualifications for the work—you understand that?"
"Yes, yes," was the hurried answer.
"Well, under these conditions and believing you tell the truth, would you mind telling me what your special qualifications for a life on the stage is?"
asked the petite little star of "Sweet Clover."

"Oh yes indeed," the girl answered, "let me tell you that every woman, or man either, who makes the stage his or her means of livelihood should have some special qualifications for the work—
you understand that?"
"Yes, yes," was the hurried answer.
asked the petite little star of "Sweet

"My greatest qualification," seriously answered the aspirant for stage honors, "is that I am always smiling. That will do, will it not?"
Miss Calhoun withheld her smiles but she impressed upon the girl the fact that she must possess another qualification aside from the fact that she had a "smile which won't come off." Miss Sadie Calhoun and Elmer Thayer will be seen at the Barre opera house in
"Sweet Clover."
Tickets tomorrow morning at the Red Cross Pharmacy.
